Vol. 18, No 2

E-NEWSLETTER

February, 2010

Is your Club ready to roll for 2010?

Do you want to spark some extra enthusiasm in your members as we get serious about electing Republicans?

Do you want to meet your elected officials face-to-face?

Do you want to sort out the candidates you will be voting for in March?

Then the place for you, your Board, and your members is

GREATER HOUSTON COUNCIL NUTS 'N' BOLTS WORKSHOP & "TAKE THE LEAD TO CAMPAIGN VICTORY 2010 LUNCHEON" TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 16

- ◆ Visit with elected officials and candidates and to ask them, face-to-face, questions you have about their views, plans, and votes.
- ◆ Hear a lineup of knowledgeable, experienced Republican Women from across the state present workshops on specific aspects of running a club, running the Party, and electing Republicans.
- ◆ Receive a booklet with handouts from all the presenters.
- ◆ Ask all those questions you have about how things get done more effectively; and
- ◆ Network with Republican Women from the 40 clubs in our nine-county area and find out what they are thinking and doing.

LUNCHEON SPEAKER WILL BE MANUEL A. ROSALES
DEPUTY DIRECTOR COALITIONS, REPUBLICAN NATIONAL COMMITTEE

Workshops scheduled are

- ◆ The Role of Club Presidents and Awards, presented by Rebecca Bradford, TFRW President;
- ◆ Using the TFRW Leadership Handbook, Carolyn Hodges, TFRW 1st VP/Special Events
- ◆ Tending to Membership, Jan Ott, TFRW VP/Membership
- ◆ Treasurer/PAC Treasurer, Records and Reports, Cynthia England, TFRW Treasurer
- ◆ Effective Communication and Technology, Jo Konen, GHC Newsletter Editor
- ◆ Party Convention Process, Rebecca Williamson, TFRW VP/Programs, SREC SD#24
- ◆ Grassroots Campaigning and GOTV, Sylvia Manley, Greater Houston Council President
